

Who's in the Community?

Membership of the Institute is by invitation only and is an unrivalled network of the world's high performance community that challenges thinking and shares insights, spanning all sports and all aspects of performance.

Leaders Connect

Kick-start relationships that will make a difference, for you.

For elite leaders who are searching for a spark but don't know exactly what they're looking for, Leaders Connect provides members personal introductions to elite performance professionals within the network.

"The Leaders Performance Institute offers a unique opportunity to meet, learn and transfer knowledge with the most senior people in the industry."

Howie Roseman
EVP of Football Operations,
Philadelphia Eagles

Leaders Virtual Roundtables

Plug into the collective knowledge of your peers to boost performance.

Leaders Virtual Roundtables enable up to 12 members to network and learn via 60-minute structured and themed online discussions every month.

Members share personal or organisational challenges with one another, and tackle problems together to benefit from the diverse knowledge and experience across our global high performance community.
